First Nations acknowledgement

I begin today by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of the land and waters on which we meet, and pay my respects to their Elders past, present and emerging.

We recognise that First Nations were the first sovereign Nations of Australia and possessed it under their own laws and customs. We respect the continuation of their cultural, spiritual, physical and emotional connection.

We also acknowledge our walking together relationship with the South East Aboriginal Focus Group, Burrendies Aboriginal Corporation and Ngarrindjeri Aboriginal Corporation.

For the work of generations past, and the benefit of generations future we seek to be a voice for reconciliation in all that we do.
